DAY 7 | ONGI MONASTERY

Travel to Ongiin Monastery, a peaceful and historically rich site located along the riverbank.

Explore the ruins of what was once one of Mongolia's largest monasteries, destroyed during the political purges of the 1930s.

Visit the small museum, enjoy the serene landscape, and relax after several days of travel.

Overnight in a ger camp.

DAY 8 | KHARKHORUM

Continue to Kharkhorin, the 13th-century capital of the Mongol Empire founded by Ogedei Khan. Visit Erdene Zuu Monastery, Mongolia's oldest surviving monastery, surrounded by 108 white stupas. Explore the Kharkhorin Museum to learn about the powerful empire, trade routes, and ancient culture.

Overnight in a ger camp in Kharkhorin.

DAY 9 | HUSTAI NATIONAL PARK

Depart from Kharkhorin after breakfast and begin your journey toward Hustai National Park, home to the world's last remaining wild horse—the Takhi (Przewalski's horse). Upon arrival in Hustai National Park, visit the small information center to learn about the reintroduction program and the conservation efforts that brought the Takhi back from extinction in the wild.

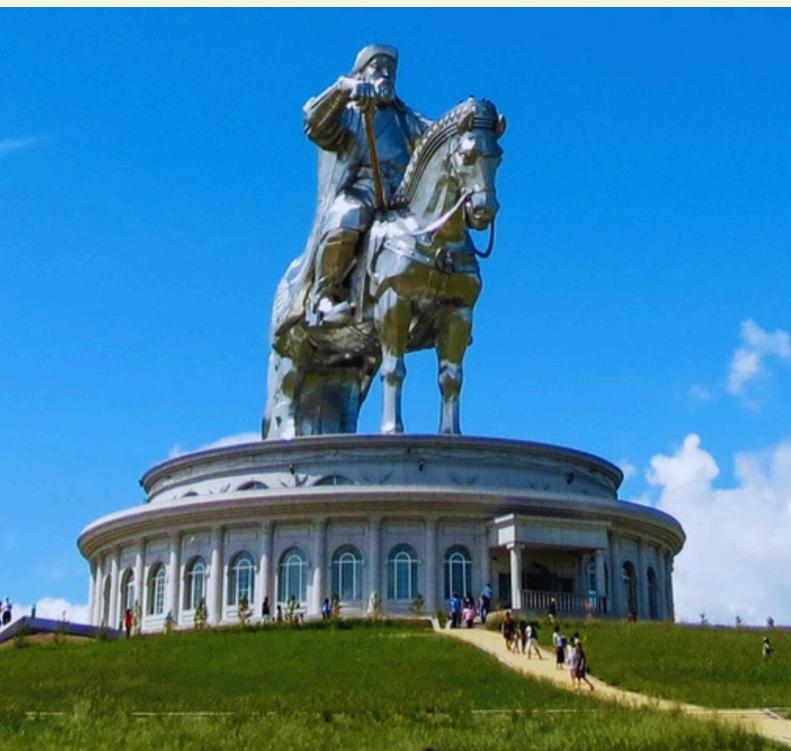

Overnight in a ger camp
